Thank you for your contribution to the University of Hawaii Foundation. A receipt is attached below for your records.

Contributions like yours are helping us to provide greatly needed resources to programs that touch the lives of every student at UH. Now more than ever, your contributions are a vital resource for providing UH students with the highest quality of education possible.

As we prepare the leaders of the twenty-first century, we are steadfast in our commitment to deliver a quality education. The generosity of our alumni and friends enables us to maintain this exceptional level of achievement.

Your support gives us confidence in the continued success of our programs. On behalf of the students at UH, thank you for your generosity and taking action to make a difference in this community.

Sincerely,

Lorraine Leslie
